(54) STRUCTURAL STRENGTH EVALUATION SUPPORT SYSTEM

(57)Abstract:

PROBLEM TO BE SOLVED: To provide a structural strength evaluation support system for allowing an evaluator to easily acquire required information, and to execute quick and high-quality evaluation when evaluating structural strength.

SOLUTION: The structural strength evaluation support system is arranged for providing properly requested information in response to a request from an evaluator terminal unit storing information required for evaluating the structural strength, and connected by a network. The system has areas for the evaluator to select and request an offer with every information, and transmits a menu image screen for systematically arranging these areas on the basis of an evaluation procedure to the terminal unit.
